Avon-by-the-Sea, N. J. August 2.—
The Avon Comedy Club will give its eighth annual benefit performance and dance next Friday and Saturday at the Avon Country Club. The proceeds will be given to local charities. Henry T. Mitchell will coach the cast, which will include between sixty and seventy-five members of the summer colony. Newly elected officers of the club are Miss Ruth Mertz, president; Misa Alice O'Reilly, treasurer, and Miss Lucy Tompkins, secretary.

Mrs. Theodore H. Francke of Brooklyn took first prize at a masquerade ball at the Avon Inn this week. Her costume was that of a Chinese lady. Dr. Francke was dressed as an Arabian. Other dancers in fancy dress were Miss F. Kelly of Manhattan, in a red harem costume; the Misses Proctor, who went as baby and nurse; and Miss Emma Sharpe, who impersonated a fairy.

The annual tennis tournament of the Avon Country Club will continue through the month with the finals on Labor Day, Visitors at the Avon Inn this week.
